college ministries

improve your semester . . . maybe your life.

ne day, it just hit us. . .

College life happens one semester at a time, so why shouldn't college ministry? It was a simple idea that just seemed to make sense. Out with the big programs & in with a new, simpler approach. So far, everyone seems to really like it, & we think you might too!

We're a laid-back group & visitors quickly notice that the things we do are simple & easy to participate in. We do everything we can to be real with each other & avoid that fake "perfect Christian" thing. The way we see it, we all need the same things. . . grace, peace, encouragement, & simple answers to life's hard questions. We think church should be a come-in-your-jeans place where you can relax & regroup any and every week.

So if 14ELEVEN sounds like something you might want to try, check out the rest of this info about the stuff we do each week. Then grab a friend or come by yourself; either way, you're already welcome here!

WEEKLY STUFF

:: CONNECT is a short worship service each Sunday that doesn't start until 11:00am, so you can really sleep-in! It lasts only 45 minutes & includes easy-to-follow Bible teaching & worship music, led by our equally easy-to-follow worship band. A great way to try us for the first time!

:: BIBLE STUDY Some might call this "Sunday School," but we just can't get comfortable with the thought of school on Sunday! For anyone wanting to learn a little more from God's Word, join us Sundays at 10:00am to learn & chat. (Breakfast is usually included!)

:: ADOPT-A-STUDENT For students interested in building a relationship with a local family, we pair you up with a family from our church who wants to be a "second family" to a starving college student!

:: CHAPTER CHURCH We will organize a Sunday for your entire fraternity, sorority, or club to sit together & be welcomed as a group. You can be recognized as a group & it can even count toward community service points!
